

पात्रों की महासभा

A fine amalgamation of simulation of literary characters amidst the modern timeline.

Event Tagline: आधुनिक ज़माना, पौराणिक चरित्र

What the event is about:

The event is about the perspective and justification of actions of various characters according to their character sketch and significant events marked in their timeline in the modern scenario which would be debated and would conclude with the final testimony in the court.

Event Description: There are two rounds in the event:

Round 1: Elimination Round

This round will be a Group Discussion where participants attempt to address an issue in the modern scenario in context of their visions and perceptions!! The discussion will be moderated by the “Event Co-Ordinator”. The participants who are selected will proceed for the final round.

Round 2: Finale

The finale of the event would be set in a backdrop of a “Courtroom” where the participants would be designated a character or a famous personality and would have to defend themselves and justify their actions and perspective in light of their plot and against the allegations levied by the host and the public. The prosecution of the participant would be conducted by the “Event Co-Ordinator” itself.

Rules of the Event:

Round 1:

1. The Group Discussion would be for around 1 hour.
2. The topic of the discussion would be taken up from modern scenario and its related issues.

Round 2:

1. The prosecution of each participant would be given a time limit of around 10 mins.
2. The contestant has to put forward his arguments keeping in mind the sketch of the character assigned to him.
